

Saccadic RT with fixed non-decision time — the floor-piling artifact is removed and conclusions are robust

A. Drift by speed is stable across the assumed t_0
(the conclusions do not depend on the fixed value)

B. Fit quality is identical across t_0
(data cannot distinguish the values — hence fixing it)

